Trendsetter Travel & Cruise Centre opens in the new Lane Cove Market Square!

On the Thursday the 26th of November 2009 a second Trendsetter Travel and Cruise Centre opened in the new Lane Cove Market Square. Thank you to our existing clients who have come in to say hello and make us feel so welcome at Lane Cove. And a special welcome to new clients – we took our first booking 90 minutes after opening and thank you for your support. Business grows daily and we look forward to serving you well in either location.

Barbara explores the Pacific Jewel

Last Friday Barbara was lucky enough to spend a night on P&O Cruises new 'Pacific Jewel'. Offering world class entertainment, activities and dining, the cruise liner has the first ever high-wire circus and trapeze arena on board. Celebrity chef, Luke Mangan's restaurant "Salt Grill", offers culinary delights to tempt those taste buds, while the oceanview spa treatment rooms make that treatment even more indulgent.

Pacific Jewel sails to a number of South Pacific and Australian destinations with itineraries ranging from 7 to 21 nights. There's sure to be one to suit you – call us for further information.

The Kimberleys come to Sydney YOUR INVITATION!

Trendsetter Travel & Cruise Centre, in conjunction with Broome Kimberley Holidays, extends an invite to you to come join us for a 2 hour harbour cruise Wednesday 20 January, 6-8 p.m. departing Rozelle Superyacht Marina. This is a must do for anyone thinking of a Kimberley Cruise and as numbers are strictly limited, we urge you to contact us now to reserve your place. Canapes and drinks will be served.

What's HOT

Select Touring

Insight Tours has developed a new range of tours, called Select. Designed for the traveller who prefers freedom touring, these tours are basic shells with a small amount of sightseeing –providing you with the economy of group touring but leaving you to do your own thing outside of travelling time. The Russian and Italian options are particularly excellent.

Mix and Match Airfares

Are you looking to stretch your travel dollar just that little bit further but still want comfort in the air? Why not consider a mix of classes e.g. economy class to Asia and business on the long-haul overnight flights? Many airlines now offer this flexibility, often at less cost than premium economy.

Croatia

Croatia! Our clients come back raving about the beautiful scenery, the stunning coastlines, the history, the culture and the ambience. Whether you tour by car or coach, yacht or ship you're sure to love Croatia.

Oasis of the Seas

Everywhere we go people want to know about this mammoth vessel and if the truth be told, my interest has only ever been professional with no desire to sail Oasis. However, 2 weeks ago I received fabulous feedback from a fellow travel colleague, with much experience and excellent judgement. Her verdict? Yes it's big, but it's so well designed and organised that the ship is a destination in itself and we shouldn't be put off by the size. I can't wait, so why should you?

Adrienne and her teams at Trendsetter Travel and Cruise Centre in Longueville and Lane Cove, wish you a safe Christmas and New Year, and look forward to seeing you in 2010!

Club Med Phuket

Bridget's Club Med Escape:

"The staff were kind and hospitable; nothing was too much trouble. The activities and entertainment were fantastic, from snorkling trips to trapeze, and special Thai performances to circus acts. Themed nights made every night more memorable than the last, while the food was the best I had tasted after three weeks in Thailand, with lobster and crab a regular on the menu! 24/7 cocktails made lying by the pool or beach all the more indulgent. Thai inspired in everyway, all-inclusive and located on the beautiful Kata Beach made for the most wonderful Thailand getaway."

Club Med Phuket

Where we went in 2009

New Zealand, Mexico, The US Masters in Augusta USA, Scotland, Ireland, Yangtze River cruising, Japan, Hong Kong, Singapore, Kota Kinabalu, Malaysia, Kenya & Tanzania, Thailand, San Francisco, Alaska & many exciting Australian destinations.
